Most of the interior of Catalina Island is part of a Conservancy. It can be enjoyed by hikers and campers or by a big tractor bus that takes people on a tour to the Airport-in-the-Sky, a horse ranch, the ocean side of the island and through the natural unsnoiled hills and valleys where hison goat and deer may be seen.