Catalina Ambassadors

My name is _________________________.

I am in __________________ grade.

My picture is about ________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

An ambassador is kind! Draw a picture of you being kind, write your name, and write a sentence about kindness.

Take a picture and have an adult post it on Instagram. Be sure to tag the museum (@catalinamuseum) and use the hashtag: #catalinadraws

The Catalina Island Museum will feature your work on its website and Instagram.